

NORTH YORKSHIRE FIRE & RESCUE SERVICE

Head of Finance and Administration Clare Godfrey FCCA

Clare Godfrey is Head of Finance and Administration and has worked for North Yorkshire Fire and Rescue Service for 12 years initially as the Head of Finance and taking on the role as Head of Administration in 2014. The position involves managing the work of the teams who provide financial accounting, budget management and payroll services, and also corporate administration services and information governance advice.

Clare trained as an Accountant within the National Health Service and is ACCA (Association of Certified Accountants) qualified. In the last year of training, she moved to Local Government working for North Yorkshire Fire and Rescue as Finance Supervisor and then to the County Council in Education Finance as Deputy Principal Accountant. In 2004, Clare moved back to the Service to take up her current role.

Clare is married to Ian, and has a son at University, and a daughter at secondary school.